Farmington High School
Farmington, Michigan

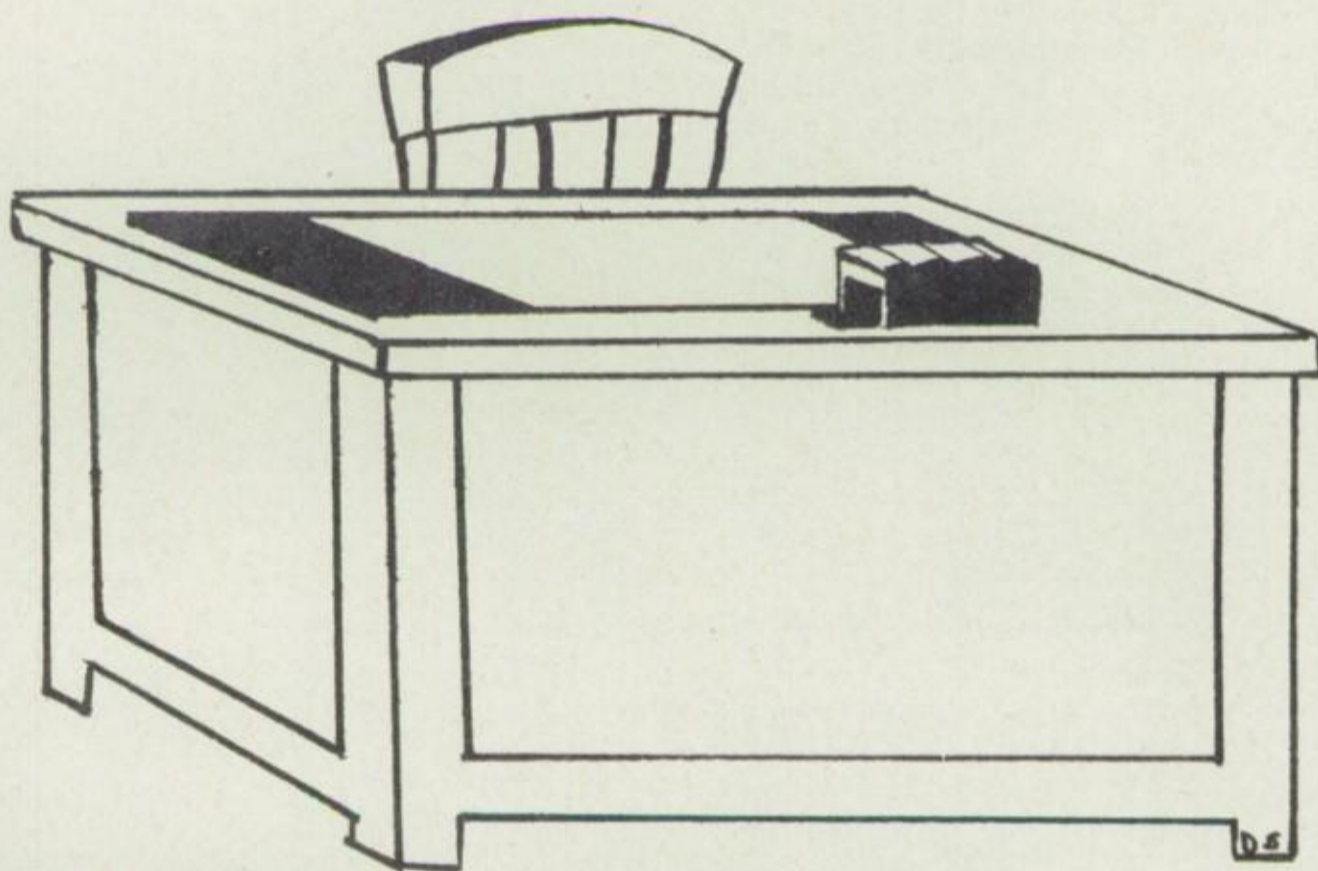

PRESENTING CRISPIN BARTHOLOMEW

Our friend Crispin not only chews and digests words from our books but also enters into our school affairs. He attempts to develop an appreciation of many things by observing if he can not actively participate. He makes friends, works hard, and tries to understand his neighbors. His is a well-rounded school personality.

DEDICATION

This Rollcall is dedicated to those parents who, through their patience, understanding, and hard work, have made it possible for the Class of 1950 to be graduated from Farmington High School.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Seated: Suzanne Labadie, Ann Plumton, Gladys Pyorala, Anne Marie Ruch, Richard Schreiber, Sara Stuntz, Bruce Treweek, Lee Tyler.
Standing: George Barrons, John Boyce, Donna Bryan, Frank Coon, Robert Erickson, Corinne Garchow, John Gere, Ruth Hamlin, Ralph Klees.

Through the efforts of Miss Ruth L. Bailey, the National Honor Society was introduced in 1945. Students who stand scholastically in the upper third of the senior class are eligible if they have shown service, leadership, and character during their high school years. Members are chosen by a special committee, who consider the recommendations of all other faculty members and school records before voting.

CRISPIN'S TASTE OF HISTORY

My name is Crispin Bartholomew Bookworm, and I am going to tell you a story concerning a very strange experience I had one day. As you know, my family (cutest you ever saw) and I reside on Thomas Street. Our home is filled with every kind of book you can imagine (mathematics, art, English, science, music, etc.). But there is one which is quite different from the others, a history book. When I first crawled over it, I did not give it a second glance. Then I spied the numbers 1-9-5-0. I stopped to study the whole title: "The Class History of 1950". I thought to myself, "Now this class must have been very outstanding, for was it not graduated at the mid-century date?"

Consumed with growing curiosity, I crept into the book, skipping past the author, the publisher, the table of contents, and the introduction. I made myself comfortable on the page entitled "Freshmen". What I saw there was far too much fun to chew. I felt it should be saved for posterity--for you and your friends to read and reread with the passing years.

"The poor old school is a-creakin' and a-groanin',
For up her steps come her freshies a-moanin'--
President Jack Boyce is running in the lead;
Vice-President Suzie Labadie's getting up speed;
Secretary Donna Bryan is coming in fast;
Treasurer Ann Plumton is a bit slow, but not last.
That tired old building gives one relieved sigh:
Here's the Class of 1950; it's certain to ride high!
Two dances are held by the freshies this year;
One closed, the other a Senior Farewell full of cheer."

In my excitement, I scurried over to the next verse and began to peruse:

"The poor old school is chipped and cracked;
It gives one more shudder; the sophomores are back!
President Lee Tyler appears first, in tradition;
Vice-President Ruth Hamlin next, with ambition,
Then follows Bob Layland--two jobs has he:
Keeping the minutes and the treasury.
The Valentine Valse is the dance of the year--
When hearts are light, when Cupid is near."

Turning my head, I smelled a most juicy, tantalizing page. The odor of delicious paper-a-la-king floated to my nostrils. But, just as I began to sample this special dish, my glance fell upon these opening lines:

"The poor old school does not look around,
For here are the juniors with a great big bound.
Jack Boyce is the president, we see, as before,
With Suzie Labadie as the vice-president once more.
Ann Plumton is the secretary, full of zest;
Barbara Henke is the treasurer, doing her best.
Their dance, the "Snowflake Frolic", is very well planned;
It transposes us all to a winter wonderland.
The J-Hop theme is of a bygone day,
"Magnolia Manor", the South of yesterday--
Gracious ladies, gentlemen, and a plantation, too,
Whose beauty and charm become a part of you.
With the help of their parents, they give a Sample Fair;
Everything is free. Joy fills the air!
Their reception for the seniors is called a "Soirée";
The setting is in a small French café."

CRISPIN'S TASTE OF HISTORY

"April Showers" is their last fling this junior year;
Then B. Henke at Girls' State does appear;
Treweek, Tyler, Barrons, and Klees at Wolverine State
Learn much about government and the world's fate.
George Barrons another distinction does receive--
The Brykalski-Coolman Award--the first, I believe.
Jones, Plumton, Labadie, and Ruch enroll
With Stuntz and Vivier in Quill and Scroll."

Meditating, I slowly and hungrily devoured this verse, but with my eyes only:

"The poor old school has made many a friend;
But, when the seniors approach, it knows it's the end.
Here comes President Treweek with a big, happy smile,
Welcomed by Vice-President Tupper, right in style.
Then comes Secretary Garchow, who is willing to please,
Closely followed by Treasurer Ralph Klees.
They sponsor a dance called the "Autumn Twirl",
With colorful leaves all in a swirl.
A committee picks for the Senior Play
A gay comedy, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay".
It develops in Europe about nineteen twenty;
Of laughs and predicaments it has plenty.
The Senior Prom is held April twenty-nine;
Swing-out, June 8, shows the graduates in solemn line.
At Baccalaureate, June 11, they think they are wise,
But at Commencement many have tears in their eyes."

As I curled up to dream about the future of these fine folks, I discovered, tucked between the pages, this note. It was addressed to Miss Ruth L. Bailey, for four years chairman of their sponsors.

Farmington, Michigan
June 15, 1950

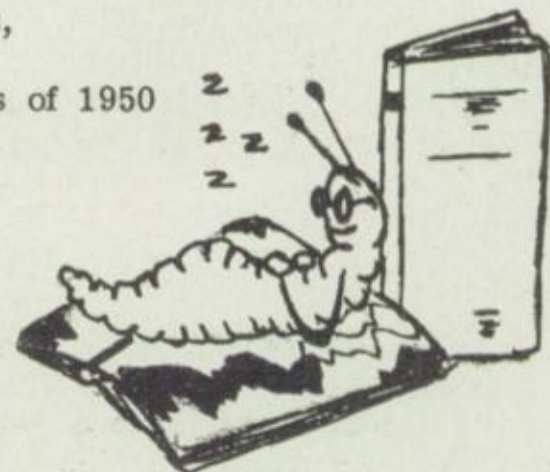

Friends,

The one hundred three of us, on our Graduation Day, wish to thank you for the guidance you have given.

We know we shall look back upon our days in high school often. It will be with pleasure that we shall recall our associations with you, our advisers: Miss Ruth Bailey, Miss M. Elsie Barnard, Mr. J. Warren Henderson, Miss Ann Metzger, Mr. Joseph Manzi, Mr. Kenneth Peterson, Mr. Earl Krausbeck, Mr. Ernest McBride, and Miss Margaret Parker.

Sincerely yours,

The Class of 1950

SPECIAL HONORS

D. A. R. Pin

The D. A. R. Award is sponsored by the Three Flags Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Candidates must possess to an outstanding degree the following traits: loyalty, patriotism, leadership, and service.

Margaret Ann Plumton was selected by her classmates and the faculty as Farmington High School's 1950 representative.

Keith Johnson Memorial

This special recognition is given annually to that senior who resembles the fine school citizenship that Keith Gordon Johnson showed in everything he did. As a result of senior-faculty vote, the name of the winner is engraved on the bronze and walnut plaque which the Class of 1940 presented to the high school in honor of their classmate. Traits considered in the final selection are cooperation, dependability, initiative, promptness, honesty, clean habits, stability, and scholarship.

George Barrons will receive the 1950 plaque at a special assembly in June.

ATHLETIC AWARDS

AschenBrenner Trophy

The AschenBrenner Athletic Trophy was presented anonymously in memory of Dr. Zae R. AschenBrenner. It is to be awarded annually to the outstanding senior athlete. The coaches make the nominations, but the final selection rests with the Athletic Council.

Keith Wieland was the first senior to receive this honor.

The 1950 selection had not been made at the time this article was written.

Brykalski-Coolman Award

The Brykalski-Coolman Award was established in 1949 by the Class of 1941, in memory of two of their classmates who were killed in World War II.

A candidate must be a junior; must have participated in at least one sport; and must have shown service, character, leadership, and scholarship.

The first recipient was George Barrons.

The 1950 winner had not been named when this copy went to press.

1949 WINNERS

Charles Larson, Keith Wieland, George Barrons, Coach Hutton.

J-HOP

On Saturday, January 28, approximately two hundred couples attended the J-Hop, dancing to the music of Jimmie Stevenson and his orchestra.

Sally Lutz was chairman of decorations for this "Winter Wonderland". James Keck designed the overhead.

MIXED CHORUS

First row: R. Hamlin, D. Moffatt, H. Catlett, J. Brunette, J. Ainsworth, R. LeMieux, M. Joyal, E. Bailey, B. Brooks, D. Sundrla, B. Gillespie, A. Plumton, S. Stuntz, S. Andrews, M. Beckwith.
 Second row: F. Smith, H. Wolfe, J. Russell, B. Smith, G. Pyorala, S. Gibbs, A. Blair, C. Garchow, M. Conkey, H. Pettifor, A. Fulks, C. Durkee, G. Lewis, Joan Smith, Joyce Smith, J. Booth, J. Howard, D. Sunasack, Mr. J. Warren Henderson.
 Third row: R. Jones, N. Snyder, M. Coon, J. Pagel, H. Tamm, P. Kelly, M. Welch, L. Garchow, B. Eichler, J. Gunnett, M. Petersmark, A. Barnum, D. Hughes, B. Henke, D. Bryan, B. Jones, A. Mecham.
 Fourth row: L. Gilson, E. Sandnes, W. Langley, R. Kosmensky, J. Gazley, L. Tyler, D. Dirmeyer, M. Trowbridge, J. Crawford, C. Ghesquiere, B. Treweek, B. Yanke, P. Brennan, R. Chapp.
 Top row: J. Shutts, R. Nichols, G. Barrons, G. Williams, D. Nichols, J. Gere, W. Turner, D. Gillespie, A. Durkee, R. Freda.

Besides singing for several P. T. A. groups, clubs, and school assemblies, the Mixed Chorus annually provides music for the Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises. They also present the Spring and Christmas concerts.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Seated: Dorothy Sunasack, Sally Pfeiffer, Nancy Shattuck, Arline Diehr, Stella Zarzycki, Mary Ann Dunham, Lois Smith, Betty Jean Rauh.
 Second row: Jean McGowan, Fern Smith, Jane Quisenberry, Audrey Mecham, Dolores Hughes, Ruth Jones, Joanne Russell, Dorothy Lint, Joan Egner, Mr. J. Warren Henderson (sponsor).

FALCONAIRES

Seated: Doris Moffatt, Anita Barnum, Shirley Gibbs, Ruth Jones, Sara Stuntz, Ann Plumton, Joanne Russell, Ruth Hamlin.

Second row: George Barrons, Bruce Treweek, Richard Kosmensky, David Dirmeyer, Robert Chapp, Mary Welch, Mr. J. Warren Henderson (director).

Selected from the glee clubs for outstanding musical ability, the Falconaires made their initial appearance in the fall of 1948. Directed by Mr. J. Warren Henderson, they join the glee clubs on special occasions. As part of their regular training, they sing over the radio twice a year and at P. T. A. meetings.

JUNIOR FALCONAIRES

The Junior Falconaires are seventh and eighth grade singers who show special promise in vocal music. This organization was formed by Mr. Henderson in October 1949.

First row: Kathryn Gardner, Kay Holcomb, Sylvia Bates, Viola Tamm, Mr. J. Warren Henderson (director).

Second row: James Brewbaker, Perrie Del Montier, James Hill, Donald Morrell, Jerry Brumm, Richard Ainsworth.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Seated: Colleen Morris, Shirley Hayes, Gladys Pyorala (secretary), Rita Pieron (major sports manager), Ann Plumton (vice-president), Helen Tamm (president), Patricia Kelly (treasurer), Nancy Snyder (minor sports manager), Helen Siggins, Julie Brunette, Marlene Simpson.
 Second row: Nancy Holcomb, Carolyn Gardner, Anne Marie Ruch, Ann Cunningham, Judy Henry, Mary Weaver, Jacqueline Rudberg, Wilma Tamm, Barbara Howle, Phyllis Pringle, Sara Stuntz, Joyce Hull.
 Third row: Alice Miller, Barbara Waters, Donna Bryan, Shirley Shaw, Dolores Hughes, Patricia Brown, Nancy Fisher, Mable Flick, Ann Louys, Suzanne Dickie, Lois Scott, Ellen Culham.
 Third row: Jane Hamlin, Ruth Hamlin, Florence Wallace, Margaret Clapp, Myrna Hurkett, Sally Pfeiffer, Miss Ann Metzger (sponsor).

The present Girls' Athletic Association was founded in 1946 by Miss Margaret Parker. Miss Ann Metzger became the club's adviser in 1947. It sponsors sports for girls, including soccer, baseball, football, and basketball.

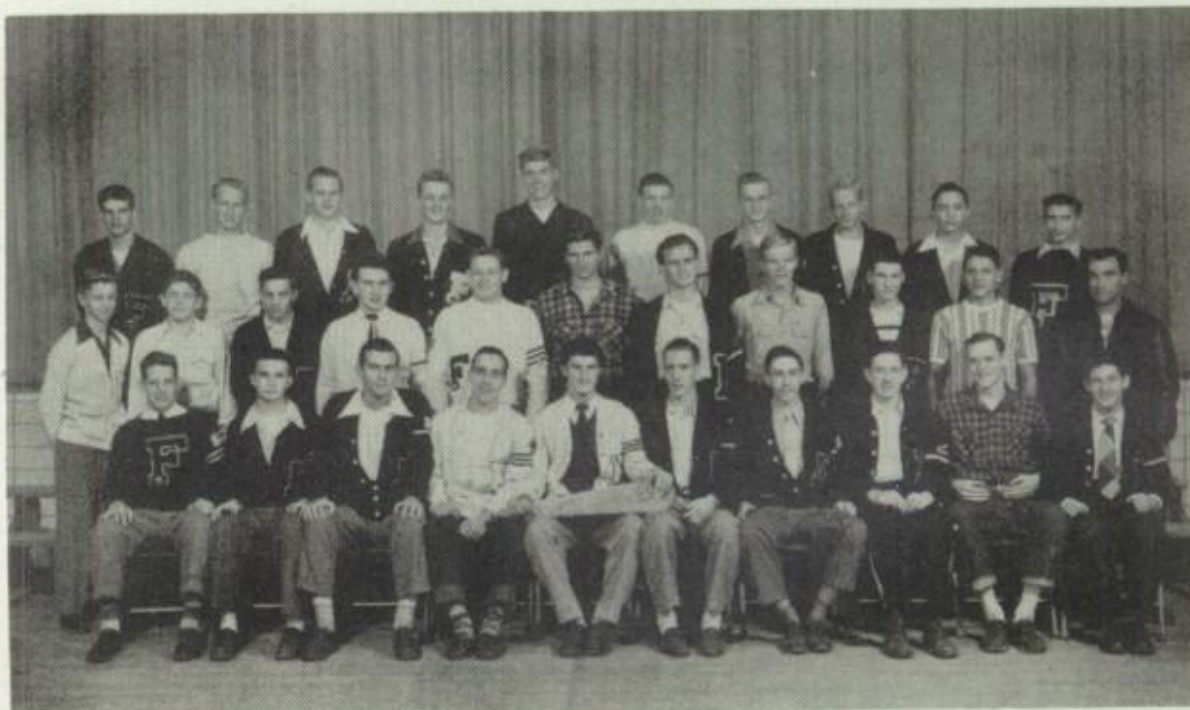

In addition to selling refreshments at games and co-sponsoring the Senior-Faculty Game, the club presented a dance in April.

VARSITY CLUB

First row: Lee Tyler, Richard Louys, Herbert Deubel (vice-president), Thomas Sechler, David Dirmeyer, Ralph Klees, Richard Tupper, James Whitman, Homer Majors, George Barrons (president).

Second row: Robert Hammond, Richard Alexander, Thomas Tata, Patrick Brennan, Bruce Yanke, Glenn Smith, Clifford Storey, Norman Rust, Douglas Thompson, Gordon Harris, Mr. Robert Hutton (adviser).

Third row: James Yuill, Donald Bunge, James Bates, Gerald Plum, Foster AschenBrenner (secretary-treasurer), Dean Whitehead, James Keck, William Hanson, Robert Hutton, John Bunn.

The Varsity Club became active in 1939 with Coaches Robert Hutton and Paul Shoemaker as advisers. Membership is restricted to high school boys who have earned Varsity letters in major sports. It is a non-profit organization. The "F" winners donate any money they make by selling programs for athletic events --or by giving dances--to the school for sports equipment or for some other worthwhile project which temporarily needs financial support.

BOYS' BOWLING LEAGUE

First row: Robert Brown, Robert Casey, Frank Coon, Dale Gillespie, Frederick Giroux, Andre Janisse, Richard Kosmen-sky, George Goers, Russell Stephen.

GIRLS' BOWLING TEAMS

Front: Barbara Jones, Ruth Ham-lin.

Seated: Geraldine Haskins, Doris Grecu, Barbara Smith, Jane Hamlin, Carolyn Gardner, Sally Pfeiffer, Virginia Fryhoff, Alice Miller, Helen Siggins, Ann Blair, Sally Giroux, Sally Leonard, Myran Hurkett.

TWIRLERS

BAND

Second row: Mr. Lloyd Smith (director), Patricia Sowers, Janet Sowers, Patricia Fanzini, Robert Spenser, Jack Phelps, Alice Frazer, Patricia Wilson, Shirley Schulkins, Deloris Wykoff, Barbara McCoy, Frank Coon, Leon Fulks, Lee Barthel, Paul Kosmensky, Roderick Ingman, Clark Bates.

BUENOS AMIGOS

Seated: Stella Zarzycki, Gabriele Muhling, Rita Pieron, Margaret Clapp, Dorothy Orofino.
Standing: Sally Lutz, Shirley Shaw, Joanne Stroben, Janet Sowers, Miss Alice Montes (sponsor).

The purpose of this club is the achievement of a better understanding of the Spanish-speaking countries and their language. Although the organization is only two years old, members have done much toward interpreting and practicing the "good neighbor" policy.

ART CLUB

Introduced in 1949 by Mr. Robert Benjamin, art director, this group aims to achieve artistic knowledge through practice and guidance. Members participate in such activities as weekend sketching trips and visiting art exhibits.

Suzanne Labadie, Joyce Gunnett, Joanne Stroben, Mr. Robert Benjamin (sponsor), Donelda Sundrla, Jane Hamlin, Dale Gillespie, Richard Bowman.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Standing: Judith Henry, James Bryan, Gail Maidment, Richard Mason, Jane Hamlin, Barbara Eichler, Suzanne Dickie, Mr. Gerald Harrison (sponsor).

The Student Council consists of four representatives from each high school class and two from the junior high school groups. The president and vice-president are elected from the senior class by the entire student body. This group has charge of parties and assembly programs, promotes the general welfare of the student body, assists the principal at athletic and other school functions, conducts the Student Court, sponsors the Falcon, helps in the selection of cheering teams, encourages civic drives, and schedules ordinary school events.

DEBATE CLUB

Deloris Wykoff, Mr. Lloyd Smith, James Whitman, Richard Schreiber, Charles Tulip, Myrna Hurkett.

The Debate Club, coached by Mr. Lloyd Smith, appeals to students interested in public speaking. The question for debate this year was "Resolved: The President of the United States should be elected by the direct vote of the people."

A debate league closely paralleling our sports league was organized this fall by Mr. Smith and Mr. G. V. Harrison. The schools included were Farmington, Milford, Walled Lake, Holly, and Bentley. After tying for first place with Bentley by winning six out of eight debates, Farmington was eligible to enter the Detroit Free Press Elimination Tournaments. The debaters received a plaque from the Detroit Free Press.

BLUE AND WHITE

Seated: Joanne Stroben, Florence Wallace, Helen Wolfe, Sara Stuntz (editor), Ruth Hamlin, Mary Welch.

Standing: Joan Pagel, Nancy Snyder, Herbert Deubel, Barbara Henke (assistant), Charles Greetham (assistant), Patricia Kelly, Frank Coon, Lawrence Gilson.

The Farmington Enterprise, since 1939, has published a page of school news written by the journalism class. This section, known as The Blue and White, qualified for Quill and Scroll in 1946. Last year the staff edited the Student Handbook for the Student Council.

FALCON

First row: Anne Marie Ruch (editor), Nancy Isley (assistant editor), Gladys Pyorala (assistant editor), Rita Pieron, Barbara Howle.

Second row: Ann Plumton, Mary Welch, Gabriele Muhling, Margaret Clapp, Miss Virginia Carley (adviser).

CAMERA CLUB

First row: Robert Erickson, Alvin McCollum, Richard Schreiber, Frank Coon, Mahlon Bradley, Ann Plumton, Carol Wheeler, Barbara Smith, Joanne Russell, Irene Sherman, Julie Brunette.

Aided by Mr. Joseph Manzi, science instructor, this club was reorganized in 1947. Its aims are to increase knowledge of photography, to learn to perfect skills, to give service to the school and community. Any interested high school boys and girls are eligible for membership.

LIBRARY CLUB

Seated: Donna Bryan (president), Rita Christian, Rosemund Oliver (secretary), Lois Smith, Carolyn Gardner.

Standing: Betty McKaye, Isobel Weller, Noreen Hamlin, Jacqueline Rudberg, Florence Wallace, Miss Wilma Brandenburg (sponsor).

The Library Club, until this year, has been regarded as a staff of assistant librarians. This fall the club was reorganized by Miss Wilma Brandenburg and is now run by the students. Members work in the library five hours each week and receive twenty hours of instruction for each semester of the first year. Any former assistant librarians may join. The objectives of the club are to promote reading among the students and to carry on the work of the library.

ROLL CALL

 Standing: Julie Brunette (quotations), Jacqueline Rudberg (will, club histories, quotations), Nancy Snyder (club histories, Can You Imagine), Suzanne Labadie (co-art editor), Judy De Long (art), Charles Greetham (advertising editor), Donelda Sundria (art), Mary Welch (co-art editor), Lee Tyler (basketball), Lawrence Gilson (sports editor), George Barrons (football), Miss Marian Dammon (adviser), Frank Coon (co-photography editor), James Crawford (art, quotations), Richard Beam (photography).

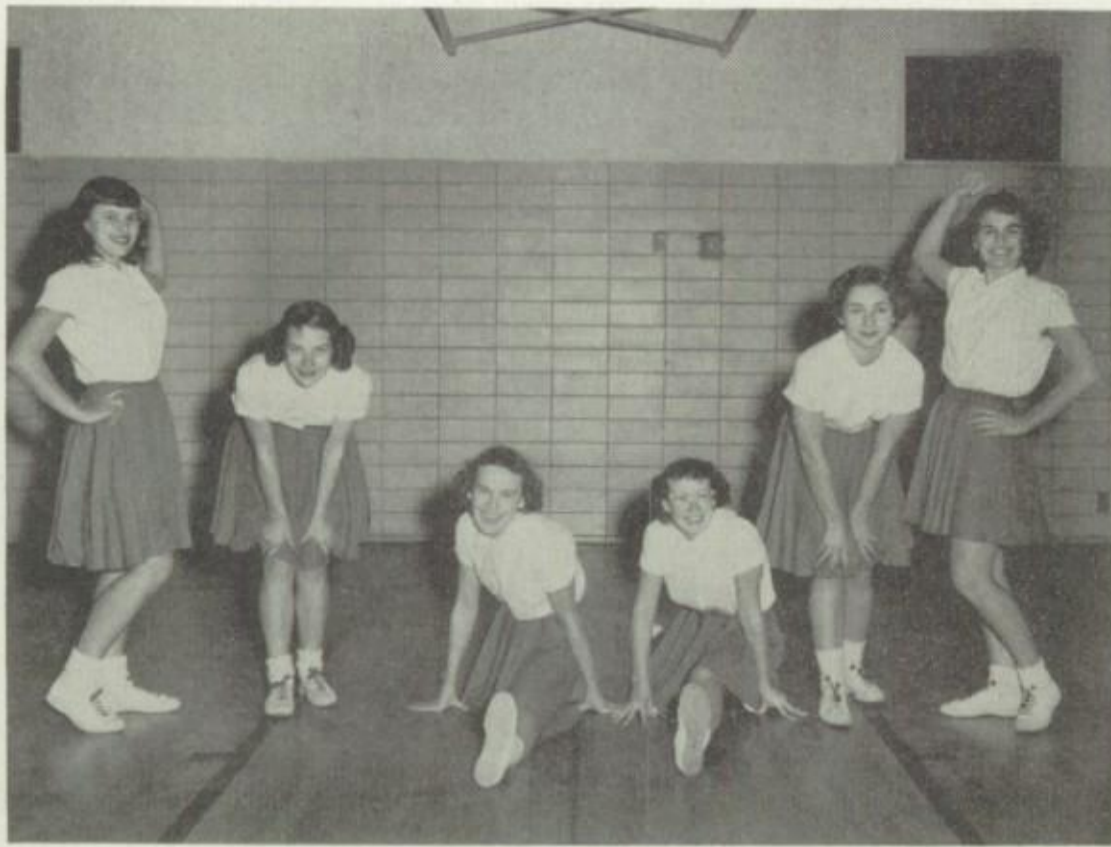

The yearbook tries to cover typical interests of all classes and organizations. However, the senior class traditionally accepts the financial responsibility for its publications.

Foreground: Anne Marie Ruch (editor-in-chief), Ann Plumton (assistant), Sally Stuntz (assistant lay-out), Ruth Hamlin (lay-out editor), Corinne Garchow (identifications).
 Background: Barbara Henke (assistant literary editor), Barbara Jones (literary editor), Gladys Pyorala (typing, dedication), Joan Pagel (chairman of typing), Patricia Kelly (will, typing), John Gere (history).
 Absentees: Helene Catlett (art), George Goers (subscriptions), Albert Szostek (cross-country).

VARSITY CHEER LEADERS

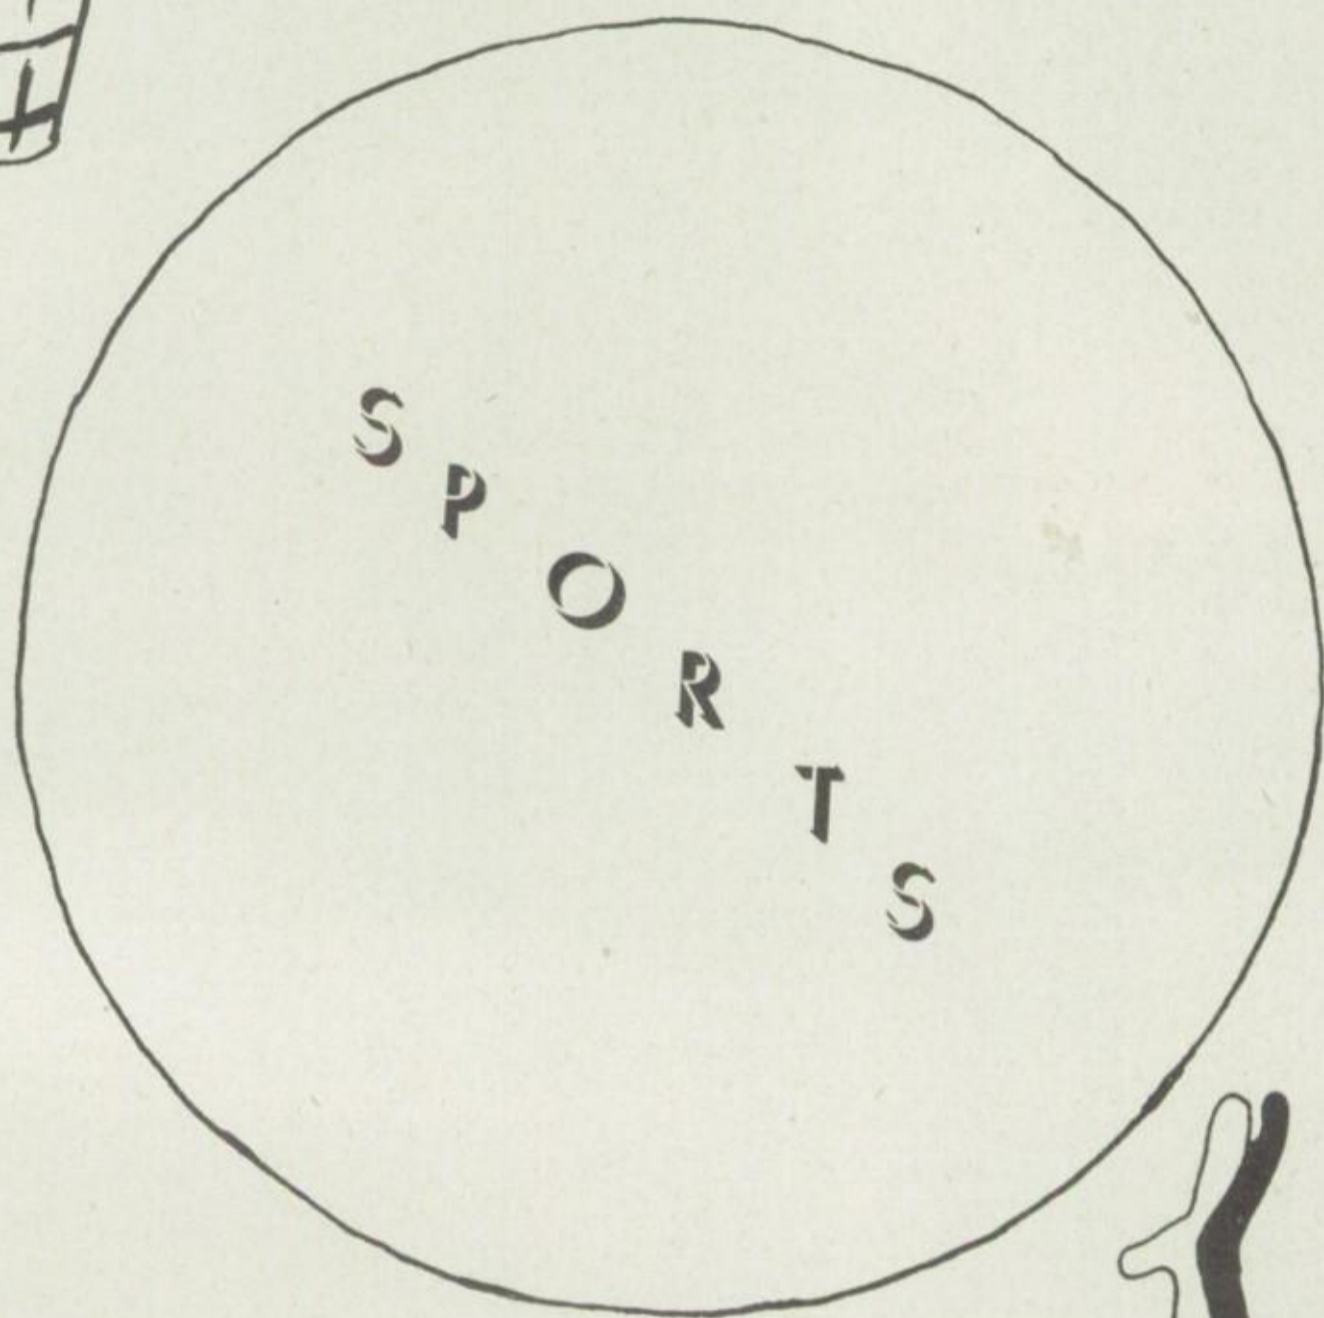

Miss Margaret Lingo, sponsor, Nancy Snyder, Nancy Holcomb, Charlotte Matthews, Helen Siggins, Geraldine Haskins, Virginia Fryhoff (captain).

Six-year-old Sandra Hupert, cheerleaders' mascot, appeared at many football and basketball games during the year.

Clarenceville

J. Packard, T. Sechler, G. Ditchfield, J. Bates

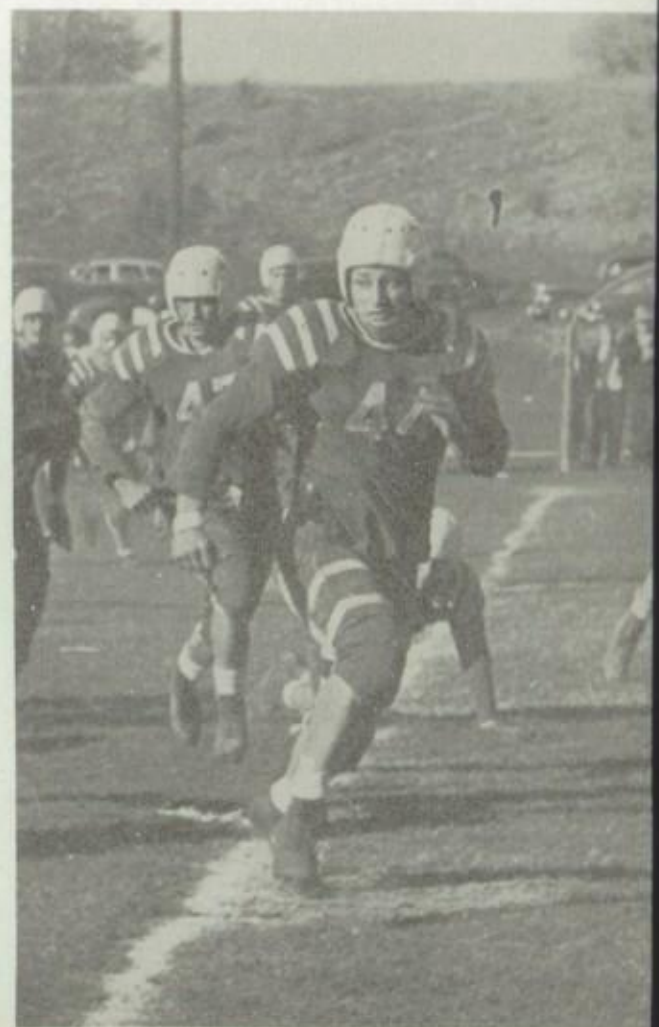

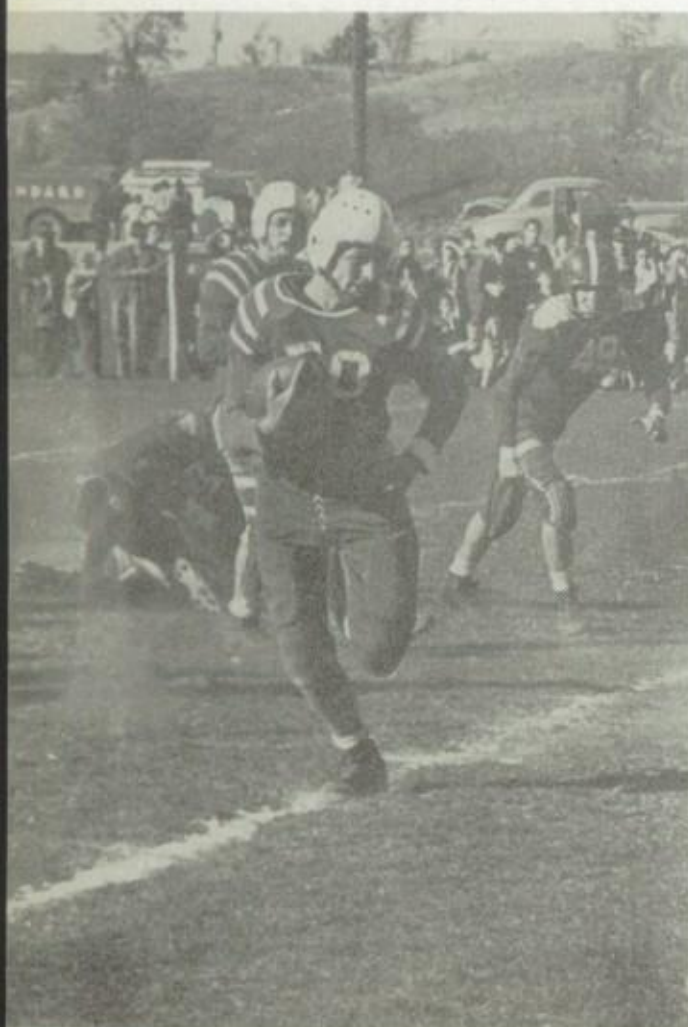

Band

J. Bates, Milford

Backfield: Thomas Tata, George Barrons, Bruce Yanke, Gerald Plum.

CO-CAPTAINS AND COACHES

Mr. Robert Burtch, John Boyce,
George Barrons, Mr. William
Nuse.

"TWELVE - PASS"

The season opened with the Falcons meeting Plymouth on our home field, where the Falcons did as expected. With Yanke as our main offensive threat, we defeated Plymouth 14 to 0. (Ebersole must be mentioned here for his fine linebacking for our opponents.)

Rochester was our second pigskin battle. We all wanted this game to add to our victory list, but the Rochester team had other ideas. Lead by their All-State fullback, E. Montross, they won 19 to 6. Jim Bates, though injured, played well for Farmington.

The Milford Trojans visited Farmington the next week. Farmington won. Yanke was our main threat again, running and kicking us to a 35 to 0 victory. The line played well also, with Godfrey the out-standing player.

Clarenceville was fourth on the slate for F. H. S. This, we thought, was going to be a tough one. Through some fine defensive work by Tata, Boyce, and the linemen, we won 26 to 0.

The best contest of the season came when we took Walled Lake 9 to 0. After a 0-0 half, our Falcons came back fighting mad. A pass from Dirmeyer to AschenBrenner clicked for 70 yards and also for the winning touchdown. Our line was charging hard, and our defense would not yield. Hayes and Tyler stood out on defense, as did Dirmeyer and AschenBrenner on offense.

Keego Harbor won the title the next week, when they outscored us by 40 points. With the loss of Ditchfield, Co-Captain Boyce, Sechler, and Bates, our team could not hold those fighting Presidents.

The following Friday Farmington worked back into the winning column by downing Holly 18 to 6. Markham and Plum, aided by some good blocking, stood out on offense. Hayes did his usual good job on defense. Godfrey and Majors, who put on a fine exhibition of defensive football, did not let Holly gain much up the middle.

The last game was not a happy one. Berkley took us 28 to 0. Everyone played his heart out but just could not manage to do much against that Berkley eleven.

This completed the schedule, the record being five victories and three defeats. The boys chose Smoky AschenBrenner and George Hayes as co-captains for the 1950-51 season.

As a fitting climax to gridiron activities, came the news that AschenBrenner, Tyler, and Yanke were elected to the All-League team.

Editor's Note: This article was written by Co-Captain George Barrons, who did an excellent piece of work all year in his position of quarterback. His good sportsmanship prevented his mentioning his own contribution.

"SHOOT"

When the crisp autumn winds began to fade, Farmington took on another sport, basketball. With an impressive record of the previous year to at least equal, the lads from Farmington got down to some good hard work.

The first game of the 1949-50 season was with Plymouth on the Falcons' floor. To take on the Rocks, Coach Hutton named Captain Dick Tupper, Dave Dirmeyer, Herb Deubel, George Barrons, and Smoky AschenBrenner. With Captain Tupper contributing 12 points, the Falcons turned back Plymouth 35-28.

Next they traveled to Wayne on a Tuesday night and trimmed the Zebras 57-32, with Dave Dirmeyer piling up 23 points.

With two games to their credit, the boys in blue and white added another by trouncing Milford 63-33, Dirmeyer again high man with 17 markers.

In the next week's action, the Falcons defeated Rochester 47-27, Dirmeyer dropping in 14 points.

They handed Keego Harbor a 33-19 defeat on Friday night, George Barrons slipping in 9 points.

Farmington then traveled to Trenton and, after a hard fought game, came home victorious 45-32, Jim Bates netting 14 points for high honors.

Craving more action, the Falcons participated in a Christmas tournament at Berkley. They came from behind in the first encounter with Walled Lake to humble the Vikings 56-50, with AschenBrenner tipping in 13 points. In the final contest, Berkley fell before the strong Farmington team, 71-41, Tupper pouring in 26 markers.

Back in league play, the boys went to Holly to whip the cagers in red and grey 64-17, Dirmeyer taking all honors with 25 points.

The Falcons defeated Berkley for the second time, 50-36, with AschenBrenner boasting 14 points for high honors.

The boys were then tripped by an aggressive Walled Lake team 44-42, suffering the first loss of the season. Tupper contributed 15 points.

Seeking to win again, the Falcons defeated Milford 66-37, AschenBrenner leading the way with 16 tallies.

They snapped Fenton's nine-game winning streak 64-26, with Dirmeyer knocking in 21 points.

The Falcons then lost another close one to Keego Harbor 49-46, Tupper marking up 16 points.

Once more, determined to get back into the winning column, the Falcons decisively beat Holly 79-29, Tupper being high man with 16 markers.

The second encounter with Berkley proved to be a bit different. Showing a great improvement, the Bears came close to topping the Falcons' scoring but fell short 53-50, Dirmeyer sinking 18 points.

The final game of the season was with Walled Lake. With the backing of the many fans who turned out, the Falcons mastered the Vikings 47-43, Dirmeyer taking honors with 17 points.

Special mention goes to Dick Tupper, Dave Dirmeyer, George Barrons, and Foster AschenBrenner. These boys were named to the Inter-Lakes All-League teams.

"GET SET"

Although Cross-Country was in its second season only, more boys participated, and spectators showed more interest this year.

A new track coach, Mr. Donald Hossler, took over and turned out a team that made a good showing. Six meets were scheduled for the harriers, in addition to an invitational one at Albion.

In this unusual sport the team that comes out with the lowest score is the winner. The Falcons took the first meet from Berkley by a score of 26 to 29. Jim Yuill was first with a time of 11:21. The second meet was dropped to Walled Lake, when we piled up 32 points to Walled Lake's 27. Jim Yuill came in second, followed by David Turner and Albert Szostek. The Falcons, having recovered from their defeat at Walled Lake, downed Milford, last year's league champions, 24 to 37. In the next contest held here, the tracksters turned back the Holly team 15 to 71. At this time Jim Yuill set a new record for F. H. S.'s track when he crossed the finish line at 10:46.

Of the eleven Class B schools running in the Albion meet, Farmington came in ninth. Jim Yuill was first among the blue and white thinclads, followed by Al Szostek, Ralph Klees (captain), Jim Keck, Jack Ratliff, Arthur Olson, and David Turner.

Although Farmington placed no men in the first two positions, they became 1949-50 champions of the Inter-Lakes League. Jim Yuill, David Turner, Jim Keck, Dick Yokom, and Ralph Klees ran third, fourth, fifth, sixth, and ninth respectively. The Falcons came in low with 27 points--ahead of Walled Lake with 44 and the defending champions, Milford, with 76 points.

Concluding a successful season, our trackmen represented Farmington in the State X-Country Meet at Ypsilanti, Michigan, where they placed fifth among Class B schools. They competed with twenty-six teams, consisting of some one hundred and fifty individuals.

Jim Keck was elected captain of next year's squad.
